

8th International SLELTA Conference, 2014

CALL FOR PAPERS

Dates : 03, 04 & 05 October 2014

Venue : Sri Lanka Foundation Institute, Colombo, Sri Lanka

THEME : English Language Teaching in the 21st Century:
Local Identities & Global Realities

SLELTA extends an invitation to submit abstracts of unpublished papers/ research and workshops as well as proposals for poster presentations.

- SUBTHEMES :
- Classroom Pedagogy & Innovation in Learning and Teaching
 - Computer Aided Language Learning
 - Teaching Young Learners
 - Literature in the Language Classroom
 - Language Teaching and Creative Writing
 - Discourse Analysis
 - Language Teaching for Social Cohesion
 - Language Policy
 - Language Teacher Education
 - Teacher Autonomy

ABSTRACTS :
(For Papers and Workshops)

The abstracts should not exceed 250 words and should include the following:
Title, author/s, affiliation, contact information (address, tel./mobile and email), five key words and a 60 word bio of the presenter/s.

POSTER PRESENTATIONS :

The abstract should discuss the main idea/focus of the presentation.

All abstracts should be posted to Sri Lanka English Language Teachers' Association, C/O Royal Asiatic Society, Mahaweli Center, No. 96 Ananda Coomaraswamy Mawatha, Colombo 07 or email them to slelta2014@gmail.com.

Deadline for Submission of Abstracts:
30th August, 2014
Notification of Acceptance:
10th September, 2014

slelta
Sri Lanka English Language Teachers' Association